JOHN WHAN CLEARED

Council So Decided After a Short Deliberation.

THE VOTE WAS FIVE TO TWO

Only One Witness Testified For the Defense, Although Many Were Called and Some Responded by Their Presence. There Was Not Sufficient Evidence to Convict—The Other Charges.

The trial of Officer Whan on the first of the charges made by the Law and Order society ended yesterday evening a few minutes before six o'clock and was submitted to the jury—the council.

When the report of the News Review stopped yesterday afternoon Chief Gill had given what little testimony he could in the case, and the defense was about to rest. It was evident to the crowd that interest in the trial would not lag when this part of the proceedings began, and they craned their heads forward and listened intently as the first witness was called. This individual was Officer Whan, and he did not look at all composed when he took the stand.

"I am 48 years of age," he said, and I was raised in Beaver county. I have known Mrs. Wilson for 12 years. On Decoration day there was a ball game, and I walked over the hill, and talked to her on the porch. This was reported to Chief Gill, and I told him about it. I got the note on Nov. 6, and went up to see what she wanted about 7 o'clock. She said she had loaned her revolver to Mr. Huckle, and wanted me to get it for her because she was afraid. I was there about 35 minutes, and Huckle and his wife came in. I didn't see them until they got to the door, nor did I try to escape. I was introduced to them in my own name and his own name, but there wasn't much conversation. Mrs. Wilson mentioned about the Crisis wanting to know the names of prominent people, and Huckle said the high official would take his medicine with the rest. I shook hands with them when they left. I didn't see anything improper while there. The reputation of the house was that she had quit business. I had my uniform on and my overcoat or ulster. I became a policeman on May 15, this year, and some days I was on at night and others during the day. I was on duty the day I visited Mrs. Wilson's house. The beat I have is the Fourth ward. I had been at the house but once before Nov. 6, and that time about 10 minutes. I heard that she was keeping a house of ill fame, and as far as I knew she was still keeping the house on Nov. 6."

"I don't see much use of bringing more witnesses to show that Mrs. Wilson was not keeping a house of ill fame at that time," said Mr. Brookes.

Mr. Clark objected to this, and would not concede Mrs. Wilson had given up the business at that time, so Mr. Brookes had the following witnesses subpoenaed: Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Huckle, Miss Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Mrs. Bixby, Mrs. Harry Rapp, Miss Stella McNutt, Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson and Z. B. Kinsey.

The above caused a cessation of affairs for a time, but at 4:20 Mr. Clark said that the purpose of the adjournment was to obtain witnesses in the case as regards the reputation of the house, and they had now agreed that council could take their own view on the matter, and with that understanding he would willingly go ahead. Mr. Brookes said that if council determined the question of reputation as a point, he was willing to leave it to council. At this moment three of the witnesses came in, but as they were not needed they were excused, and at once left the room. Mr. Brookes then called for the detective, and Huckle once more took the stand. In answer to the questioning of Mr. Brookes, he said: "I did write the article in the News Review of Nov. 4, and believed it at that time, and that she was sincere; but shortly afterward I found she was not."

Mr. Brookes—Is Mr. Whan the prominent city official you mean? Huckle—It was not Whan I meant. The testimony then ceased, and Mr. Clark wanted the case postponed until the next charges were tried, and Mr.

Brookes objected. Mr. Clark stated that he desired to try the case at one time, and Mr. Brookes persisted in his demand for action. The case now, he said, was fresh in the minds of the people, and two weeks hence it might not be.

"I find in the ordinance," said President Marshall, "that each charge be voted on separately, and I therefore rule that we finish the case." The vote was taken, and all voted to have the decision at once except Mr. Purinton, who wanted it postponed. That settled the matter, and a few minutes before 4 o'clock the arguments commenced. Mr. Clark opened with a complete review of the testimony, and Mr. Travis followed with a brief speech. Mr. Brookes then took the floor, and made one of the most powerful speeches ever heard in the court room. He dealt severely with the detective, and declared that the good people of the city had been deceived. It was pathetic at times, and during the greater part of his argument, particularly when he referred to the abandoned woman of the Bible, Anne Houser was in tears. Mr. Clark closed the argument and council went into executive session. It required more than half an hour for the members to reach a decision, and when this was arrived at, Officer Whan was acquitted by a vote of five to two. Only a few persons were present to hear the verdict.

The charge upon which the officer was acquitted will not, of course, have anything to do with the new charges, and they will be heard at some other time. It is probable that the date of Jan. 13 will be selected, although that is a matter to be decided. The nature of these charges was given in this paper yesterday.

'T WAS A FARCE.

Ann Houser's Conversion a Tramp Card For Whan.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Let me have the columns of your paper for a few common sense thoughts, addressed to all good, right thinking, honorable, law abiding and common sense people. Officer Whan was tried (?) yesterday. None but specific charges were allowed. This shut out a volume of testimony against him for the time being. The only specific charge was his visit to a house of ill fame on Nov. 6. Ann Houser admits that she has been running a house of ill fame for years. Jason Brookes says that she could have been pulled any day in the 365 days in the year. The notorious Ann says she was running an evil house until Nov. 2, 1895. Then she ceased and says she was converted. Then an inmate of her house, one Maggie Hiller, wrote a note to Whan. (So she says.) Maggie says Whan came to the house. Ann Houser says the same. Whan himself admits it. Now, in the name of common sense, what right had John Whan to go there? He knew the house to be a den of infamy. Ann Houser yesterday swore that every one knew it. What right had John Whan, a policeman, to go there, in response to a letter from an inmate of such a house? If there was danger existing to the inmates, Mayor Gilbert or Marshal Gill should have been notified, and when John Whan, a roundsman, received a letter calling for protection, 'twas his bounden duty to take that letter to Chief Gill, or, in the chief's absence, to Mayor Gilbert, and then have acted in accordance with their orders in the matter. John Whan was in that notorious den, in uniform, without authority, and the only way he could be cleared was to say that Ann Houser had been running a house of ill fame on Nov. 2, 1895, but that on Nov. 6, 1895, she was a converted woman and living a reputable life. And that is just what council decided. All honor to the two common sense councilmen who voted against such an opinion. Give us their names. "The mills of the gods," etc. Turn on the light. Citizens will express their opinion on Friday night of this week. Let right prevail. LAW AND ORDER.

A WINDY NIGHT.

The Gentle Zephyrs Became a Howling Gale Before Morning.

Of all the stormy nights of the season last night was probably the worst. The wind became a gale, and howled and blew with terrific force up the valley. No particular damage was done, but fences and fruit trees suffered somewhat in exposed sections. Pedestrianism to the city was fraught with decided discomfort, for it did not freeze until late and the rain fell in torrents. The streets were slushy and this morning slippery. The mercury took a big drop before morning.

Very Ill.

The many friends of Robert Logan, of Sixth street, will regret to learn that he is worse, and it is feared he cannot recover.

TO BE DONE IN A YEAR

The Contract For the Bridge Has Been Let.

NO COLLEGE STREET APPROACH

The Barker Lot Has Been Purchased, and the House Will Be Moved—John Shrader of Pittsburg Is the Contractor, and a Year Is the Limit.

After over three years of hard work and unremitting toil, J. E. McDonald has succeeded in his enterprise, and the News Review can today say with authority that within one year from tomorrow a handsome structure of steel and stone will span the Ohio, connecting this city with the shores of West Virginia.

While it was conceded by all who knew anything of the matter that the project was in the best of condition and the unusual activity of the past few months was an excellent indication, no one really knew anything of the bridge except the few people in this city who are directly interested. The number of meetings recently held, and the presence in the city of engineers and contractors from Pittsburg, has all along shown that something was about to come, but it did not appear until today, when Mr. McDonald said to the News Review:

"Yes sir, we are going to build the bridge. There is no longer any question about it. The company that was organized some time ago has now all things ready, and it needs only a semblance of good weather to get us started. The contract has been let, and the contractor is ready to begin work. The gentleman's name is John Shrader and his home is Pittsburg. Wherever men are after big contracts he is usually in the front line, and there is not the slightest question of his ability to complete a work which involves so much brains and money as the bridge. The contract calls for a complete structure on Jan. 1, 1897, and we hope by that time to present to the city for patronage one of the finest bridges over the Ohio. It will be complete in every particular, and no money will be spared that will in any way add to the substantial and beautiful features of the structure. Work will be commenced as soon as the weather will permit, and the men may be here at any time. I hear that some derricks were landed on the Chester side of the river last night by the Bedford, but whether it is for the bridge I don't know, because I have not had time to investigate. However, that is wholly in the hands of the contractor, and I feel assured that he will begin work as soon as possible. The approach on the Ohio side will not be on College street, as we have at times intended, but will be on the Barker property. We bought the lot and the house will be moved. It gives us an excellent advantage, and is the best ground for the purpose the engineer could find. The policy of the company from now until the last bolt is put in place on the bridge will be push. We want to have it built and ready for travel as soon as consistent with good work. There will not be the slightest delay if it can be avoided, and I have no reason to doubt that in a year from today it will be ready for travel."

The news is cheering in the extreme, and adds not a little to the pleasure of the new year. Much of the contract price of the structure will be spent in this city, and business will feel it. The structure will bring a vast amount of trade to the city which now goes to New Cumberland and Beaver, and will in every way help East Liverpool. Mr. McDonald has worked hard in the cause, and on more than one occasion has been met by defeat; but he never gave it up. When one party failed him he sought another, and with an enthusiastic spirit kept up the work. Mr. McDonald was today receiving the well deserved congratulations of his friends.

NEW OFFICERS.

The Clerks Elected Their Last Night at Meeting.

The clerks elected the following officers last night: President, J. E. Anderson; vice president, Mr. Haynes; first vice president, Miss Stella McNutt; second vice president, Will McNutt; recording secretary, Henry Ashbaugh; financial, A. I. Kerr; treasurer, Mr. Sloan; guide, Harry Sutton; guard, L. Hertel; delegate to trades council, D. H. Yant.

The officers will be installed on the last Friday in January, which will be made an occasion of pleasure. Resolutions were adopted which makes the closing time the same as last year, with the exception that stores remain open until 9 o'clock each Monday evening.

Fifty clerks were present, and several members were initiated. A scale committee, made up of Messrs. Haines, Sloan and Steinfeld, and John Powell, organizer, was appointed.

CANDIDATES CARDS.

The Best and Prettiest are Made at the News Review.

The well equipped job department of the News Review is prepared to print candidates, cards at a low rate and on the shortest notice. The workmanship in every instance will be none but the best, and the stock used is a board that will endure, as well as any manufactured, the rigorous hardships of a municipal campaign. The cards turned out by the News Review in other campaigns number many thousands, with never a word of complaint. If your cards are printed at the News Review you will have no cause for complaint.

NEW YEAR AMUSEMENTS.

Events of Pleasure For Tonight and Tomorrow Evening.

There are a number of dances and other events of pleasure booked for this evening and tomorrow night. The Columbian club will entertain their friends in large numbers this evening at their rooms on Washington street, and the America Eagle and the Alvin club will dance in their quarters. The glassworkers will enjoy a masquerade at the Fifth street rink, and a private party is booked for Bradshaw hall. Tomorrow evening a number of young ladies will entertain at the same place by the first leap year party of the season. So far as dancing parties are concerned the holiday will be perfect.

POOR WALL STREET.

It Is a Sea of Mud Deep Enough to Drown a Man.

People who live out on the hills have but one complaint today, and that is the awful condition of the streets. Calcutta road, so long considered the muddiest, meanest street to travel for miles around, must yield the palm to another, for it is said that Wall street is now the banner highway for mud in town. One resident, his trousers rolled almost to his knees and his shoes covered with mud, declared that a horse could be drowned in Wall street last night, and no one would be the wiser. Commissioner Welsh had his force improving the road a little by filling up the trenches with stone.

LAST DAY OF DUTY.

Chief Gill Becomes the County Sheriff Tomorrow.

Charley Gill today ends his career as marshal and chief of police of the city, and will retire tonight, giving way to John Wyman, whose experience on the force will doubtless make him a valuable man for the city. Chief Gill will remove his family to Lisbon and take charge of his duties tomorrow, and he goes with the best wishes of a vast number of friends. During his private and official career in the city he has been honorable and just in his dealings with all men, and has filled the position of marshal in an exemplary manner. He will doubtless serve the county as well and as faithfully as he served the city.

WILL PRESENT A BILL.

James McMillen Wants Pay For a Wagon.

A teamster in the employ of James McMillen was sent to the Burford pottery last Friday, and was engaged in loading his wagon with packages of ware when a number of employees of the factory were playing on a car. In some way the brake was loosened, and the car started down the hill toward the wagon. The horses were scared, and ran away, and the wagon was so seriously damaged that it cost McMillen a pretty penny to have it repaired. He now wants the men who were on the car to pay the bill, and if they fail to do it he proposes to present it to their employers, the company.

SLAPPED HIS WIFE.

An Incident on Fifth Street Because of a Quarrel.

A man and woman who quarreled as though they knew a great deal of each other had a sharp controversy in Fifth street, near the Diamond, soon after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the woman seemed to be getting the best of her opponent, when he raised a big, heavy hand and struck her on the cheek. The woman made no attempt to retaliate, but turned and walked quickly away. The man was under the influence of liquor, and after watching the woman for a minute or more, turned and slouched away.

THE GLOBE BREAKERS

Manager Bostwick Will End the Practice.

IT COSTS THE COMPANY COIN

The Practice Has Become an Expensive Nuisance and Must Cease—The Penalty Will be Enforced in Every Instance. Globes Broken Daily.

The light company have decided to begin a vigorous warfare against the people who break the globes of arc lamps and will lose no time in starting the crusade.

The practice has been carried on for years and has cost the company no small amount of money. The trimmers find globes broken almost every morning, and there has never been redress of any kind. This morning one was found mashed to pieces at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, and of course it was impossible to locate the perpetrators of the deed. Not long ago several were found broken in one night, and although efforts were made to locate the parties they could not be found. Manager Bostwick has decided to abate the nuisance, and whenever a globe is broken the company will see that the culprit gets as salty a dose as the law will allow. At one time it was thought that boys accidentally mashed the globes, but now there is reason for believing that other parties of more mature years have been practicing throwing. They are the men the company are after, and they will be called to account the next time a globe is broken. Malicious destruction of property costs money when proven.

THE ANNUAL RECEPTION.

It Will Be Held at the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Evening.

The reception which the Young Men's Christian association always give on the first evening of the year to the college boys will this time be on a more elaborate scale than in other years. The program is as follows:

Anthem..... Y. M. C. A. Quartet
Vocal solo..... Miss Carrie Campbell
Club singing..... Association sextet
Piano duet..... The Misses Agner
Recitation..... Miss Bella Myler
Duet..... Charles Usher and Leith Young
Vocal solo..... Miss Georgia McLean
Recitation..... Miss Carrie McKinnon
Harmonica solo..... Henry Ashbaugh
Vocal solo..... George A. Hassen
Solo..... Mrs. Fannie Foreman
Violin solo..... George Boland
Opus gymnastic..... Senior class

The general public is invited, and the officers of the association hope the invitation will be accepted, promising all who come a delightful evening.

GUILTY OF LARCENY.

George Hickman Got a Fine of $10 and Costs.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Dec. 31.—George Hickman, of Middleton township, was in the court of Judge Young last night charged with larceny by William Ferguson, from whom he had stolen a number of articles. He pleaded guilty, and got $10 and costs.

Miss Flossie Lucas, a prominent young woman of this place, died here yesterday. Rheumatism was the cause. She was but 17 years of age.

George H. Alcorn, a farmer residing near East Palestine, made an assignment today to S. H. Maneval.

Marriage licenses were issued today to Carlos McLaughlin and Ella Lewis; Dayton Rigden and Maggie Glassburner.

MAKING GOOD TIME.

How the Standard Pottery is Being Whitewashed.

There is but little yet undone about the Standard to make it a complete pottery, and Manager Ferguson and Patrick McNicol were doing away with that little this morning. They found it necessary to whitewash some portions of the place and desiring to make time they got a force pump and a hose. The fluid was then forced against the walls, and the arduous work was made less tiresome, while the laughing workers made much better time than with a brush. They think of having a patent on the appliance.

Didn't Lift the Watch.

John Elliott, the East End young man who picked up a friend's watch after he had thrown it away on Christmas eve, simply did it in kindness, and immediately turned it over to Mayor Gilbert. Mr. Elliott had none but the most honorable intention.

Comrade Alex McGraw

Will address the Sons of Veterans tonight at the Grand Army hall, on the topic of Andersonville and the horrors of prison life during the war of the rebellion.

AT...

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Before our annual stock taking we will close out at greatly reduced prices a fine line of Dress Goods, Dress Trimmings, Cloaks, Blankets, Flannels, Comforts, Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Underwear, Glass, China, Silverware, Pictures, Etc., Etc. Umbrellas, Ladies' & Children's Gossamers and Mackintoshes.

Stock in each department is unusually large for and of the season. So you can make a good selection at very low prices for future wants.

JOHN WHAN CLEARED

Council So Decided After a Short Deliberation.

THE VOTE WAS FIVE TO TWO

Only One Witness Testified For the Defense, Although Many Were Called and Some Responded by Their Presence. There Was Not Sufficient Evidence to Convict—The Other Charges.

The trial of Officer Whan on the first of the charges made by the Law and Order society ended yesterday evening a few minutes before six o'clock and was submitted to the jury—the council.

When the report of the News Review stopped yesterday afternoon Chief Gill had given what little testimony he could in the case, and the defense was about to rest. It was evident to the crowd that interest in the trial would not lag when this part of the proceedings began, and they craned their heads forward and listened intently as the first witness was called. This individual was Officer Whan, and he did not look at all composed when he took the stand.

"I am 48 years of age," he said, and I was raised in Beaver county. I have known Mrs. Wilson for 12 years. On Decoration day there was a ball game, and I walked up over the hill, and talked to her on the porch. This was reported to Chief Gill, and I told him about it. I got the note on Nov. 6, and went up to see what she wanted about 7 o'clock. She said she had loaned her revolver to Mr. Huckle, and wanted me to get it for her because she was afraid. I was there about 35 minutes, and Huckle and his wife came in. I didn't see them until they got to the door, nor did I try to escape. I was introduced to them in my own name and his own name, but there wasn't much conversation. Mrs. Wilson mentioned about the Crisis wanting to know the names of prominent people, and Huckle said the high official would take his medicine with the rest. I shook hands with them when they left. I didn't see anything improper while there. The reputation of the house was that she had quit business. I had my uniform on and my overcoat or ulster. I became a policeman on May 15, this year, and some days I was on at night and others during the day. I was on duty the day I visited Mrs. Wilson's house. The beat I have is the Fourth ward. I had been at the house but once before Nov. 6, and that time about 10 minutes. I heard that she was keeping a house of ill fame, and as far as I knew she was still keeping the house on Nov. 6."

"I don't see much use of bringing more witnesses to show that Mrs. Wilson was not keeping a house of ill fame at that time," said Mr. Brookes.

Mr. Clark objected to this, and would not concede Mrs. Wilson had given up the business at that time, so Mr. Brookes had the following witnesses subpoenaed: Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Huckle, Miss Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, Mrs. Bixby, Mrs. Harry Rapp, Miss Stella McNutt, Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson and Z. B. Kinsey.

The above caused a cessation of affairs for a time, but at 4:20 Mr. Clark said that the purpose of the adjournment was to obtain witnesses in the case as regards the reputation of the house, and they had now agreed that council could take their own view on the matter, and with that understanding he would willingly go ahead. Mr. Brookes said that if council determined the question of reputation as a point, it was willing to leave it to council. At this moment three of the witnesses came in, but as they were not needed they were excused, and at once left the room. Mr. Brookes then called for the detective, and Huckle once more took the stand. In answer to the questioning of Mr. Brookes, he said:

"I did write the article in the News Review of Nov. 4, and believed it at that time, and that she was sincere; but shortly afterward I found she was not."

Mr. Brookes—Is Mr. Whan the prominent city official you meant Huckle? It was not Whan I meant. The testimony then ceased, and Mr. Clark wanted the case postponed until the next charges were tried, and Mr.

Brookes objected. Mr. Clark stated that he desired to try the case at one time, and Mr. Brookes persisted in his demand for action. The case now, he said, was fresh in the minds of the people, and two weeks hence it might not be.

"I find in the ordinance," said President Marshall, "that each charge be voted on separately, and I therefore rule that we finish the case." The vote was taken, and all voted to have the decision at once except Mr. Purinton, who wanted it postponed. That settled the matter, and a few minutes before 4 o'clock the arguments commenced. Mr. Clark opened with a complete review of the testimony, and Mr. Travis followed with a brief speech. Mr. Brookes then took the floor, and made one of the most powerful speeches ever heard in the court room. He dealt severely with the detective, and declared that the good people of the city had been deceived. It was pathetic at times, and during the greater part of his argument, particularly when he referred to the abandoned woman of the Bible, Anne Houser was in tears. Mr. Clark closed the argument and council went into executive session. It required more than half an hour for the members to reach a decision, and when this was arrived at, Officer Whan was acquitted by a vote of five to two. Only a few persons were present to hear the verdict.

The charge upon which the officer was acquitted will not, of course, have anything to do with the new charges, and they will be heard at some other time. It is probable that the date of Jan. 13 will be selected, although that is a matter to be decided. The nature of these charges was given in this paper yesterday.

'T WAS A FARCE.

Ann Houser's Conversion a Trump Card For Whan.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Let me have the columns of your paper for a few common sense thoughts, addressed to all good, right thinking, honorable, law abiding and common sense people. Officer Whan was tried yesterday. None but specific charges were allowed. This shut out a volume of testimony against him for the time being. The only specific charge was his visit to a house of ill fame on Nov. 6. Ann Houser admits that she has been running a house of ill fame for years. Jason Brookes says that she could have been pulled any day in the 365 days in the year. The notorious Ann says she was running an evil house until Nov. 2, 1895. Then she ceased and says she was converted. Then an inmate of her house, one Maggie Hiller, wrote a note to Whan. (So she says.) Maggie says Whan came to the house. Ann Houser says the same. Whan himself admits it. Now, in the name of common sense, what right had John Whan to go there? He knew the house to be a den of infamy. Ann Houser yesterday swore that every one knew it. What right had John Whan, a policeman, to go there, in response to a letter from an inmate of such a house? If there was danger existing to the inmates, Mayor Gilbert or Marshal Gill should have been notified, and when John Whan, a roundsman, received a letter calling for protection, 'twas his bounden duty to take that letter to Chief Gill, or, in the chief's absence, to Mayor Gilbert, and then have acted in accordance with their orders in the matter. John Whan was in that notorious den, in uniform, without authority, and the only way he could be cleared was to say that Ann Houser had been running a house of ill fame on Nov. 2, 1895, but that on Nov. 6, 1895, she was a converted woman and living a reputable life. And that is just what council decided. All honor to the two common sense councilmen who voted against such an opinion. Give us their names. "The mills of the gods," etc. Turn on the light. Citizens will express their opinion on Friday night of this week. Let right prevail.

TO BE DONE IN A YEAR

The Contract For the Bridge Has Been Let.

NO COLLEGE STREET APPROACH

The Barker Lot Has Been Purchased, and the House Will Be Moved—John Shrader of Pittsburgh Is the Contractor, and a Year Is the Limit.

After over three years of hard work and unremitting toil, J. E. The number of meetings recently held, and the presence in the city of engineers and contractors from Pittsburgh, has all along shown that something was about to come, but it did not appear until today, when Mr. McDonald said to the NEWS REVIEW:

"Yes sir, we are going to build the bridge. There is no longer any question about it. The company that was organized some time ago has now all things ready, and it needs only a semblance of good weather to get us started. The contract has been let, and the contractor is ready to begin work. The gentleman's name is John Shrader and his home is Pittsburgh. We want to have it built and ready for travel as soon as consistent with good work. There will not be the slightest delay if it can be avoided, and I have no reason to doubt that in a year from today it will be ready for travel."

The news is cheering in the extreme, and adds not a little to the pleasure of the new year. Much of the contract price of the structure will be spent in this city, and business will feel it. The structure will bring a vast amount of trade to the city which now goes to New Cumberland and Beaver, and will in every way help East Liverpool. Mr. McDonald has worked hard in the cause, and on more than one occasion has been met by defeat; but he never gave it up. When one party failed him he sought another, and with an enthusiastic spirit kept up the work. Mr. McDonald was today receiving the well deserved congratulations of his friends.

NEW OFFICERS.

The Clerks Elected Them Last Night at Meeting.

The clerks elected the following officers last night: President, J. E. Anderson; vice president, Mr. Haynes; first vice president, Miss Stella McNutt; second vice president, Will McNutt; recording secretary, Henry Ashbaugh; financial, A. I. Kerr; treasurer, Mr. Sloan; guide, Harry Sutton; guard, L. Hertel; delegate to trades council, D. H. Yant.

The officers will be installed on the last Friday in January, which will be made an occasion of pleasure. Resolutions were adopted which makes the closing time the same as last year, with the exception that stores remain open until 9 o'clock each Monday evening.

Fifty clerks were present, and several members were initiated. A scale committee, made up of Messrs. Haines, Sloan and Steinfeld, and John Powell, organizer, was appointed.

CANDIDATES CARDS.

The Best and Prettiest are Made at the News Review.

The well equipped job department of the NEWS REVIEW is prepared to print candidates, cards at a low rate and on the shortest notice. The workmanship in every instance will be none but the best, and the stock used is a board that will endure, as well as any manufactured, the rigorous hardships of a municipal campaign. The cards turned out by the NEWS REVIEW in other campaigns number many thousands, with never a word of complaint. If your cards are printed at the NEWS REVIEW you will have no cause for complaint.

NEW YEAR AMUSEMENTS.

Events of Pleasure For Tonight and Tomorrow Evening.

There are a number of dances and other events of pleasure booked for this evening and tomorrow night. The Columbian club will entertain their friends in large numbers this evening at their rooms on Washington street, and the America Eagle and the Alvin club will dance in their quarters. The glassworkers will enjoy a masquerade at the Fifth street rink, and a private party is booked for Bradshaw hall. Tomorrow evening a number of young ladies will entertain at the same place by the first leap year party of the season. So far as dancing parties are concerned the holiday will be perfect.

POOR WALL STREET.

It Is a Sea of Mud Deep Enough to Drown a Man.

People who live out on the hills have but one complaint today, and that is the awful condition of the streets. Calcutta road, so long considered the muddest, meanest street to travel for miles around, must yield the palm to another, for it is said that Wall street is now the banner highway for mud in town. One resident, his trousers rolled almost to his knees and his shoes covered with mud, declared that a horse could be drowned in Wall street last night, and no one would be the wiser. Commissioner Welsh had his force improving the road a little by filling up the trenches with stone.

LAST DAY OF DUTY.

Chief Gill Becomes the County Sheriff Tomorrow.

Charley Gill today ends his career as marshal and chief of police of the city, and will retire tonight, giving way to John Wyman, whose experience on the force will doubtless make him a valuable man for the city. Chief Gill will remove his family to Lisbon and take charge of his duties tomorrow, and he goes with the best wishes of a vast number of friends. During his private and official career in the city he has been honorable and just in his dealings with all men, and has filled the position of marshal in an exemplary manner. He will doubtless serve the county as well and as faithfully as he served the city.

WILL PRESENT A BILL.

James McMillen Wants Pay For a Wagon.

A teamster in the employ of James McMillen was sent to the Burford pottery last Friday, and was engaged in loading his wagon with packages of ware when a number of employees of the factory were playing on a car. In some way the brake was loosened, and the car started down the hill toward the wagon. The horses were scared, and ran away, and the wagon was so seriously damaged that it cost McMillen a pretty penny to have it repaired. He now wants the men who were on the car to pay the bill, and if they fail to do it he proposes to present it to their employers, the company.

SLAPPED HIS WIFE.

An Incident on Fifth Street Because of a Quarrel.

A man and woman who quarreled as though they knew a great deal of each other had a sharp controversy in Fifth street, near the Diamond, soon after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the woman seemed to be getting the best of her opponent, when he raised a big, heavy hand and struck her on the cheek. The woman made no attempt to retaliate, but turned and walked quickly away. The man was under the influence of liquor, and after watching the woman for a minute or more, turned and slouched away.

THE GLOBE BREAKERS

Manager Bostwick Will End the Practice.

IT COSTS THE COMPANY COIN

The Practice Has Become an Expensive Nuisance and Must Cease—The Penalty Will be Enforced in Every Instance. Globes Broken Daily.

The light company have decided to begin a vigorous warfare against the people who break the globes of arc lamps and will lose no time in starting the crusade.

The practice has been carried on for years and has cost the company no small amount of money. The trimmers find globes broken almost every morning, and there has never been redress of any kind. This morning one was found mashed to pieces at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, and of course it was impossible to locate the perpetrators of the deed. Not long ago several were found broken in one night, and although efforts were made to locate the parties they could not be found. Manager Bostwick has decided to abate the nuisance, and whenever a globe is broken the company will see that the culprit gets as salty a dose as the law will allow. At one time it was thought that boys accidentally mashed the globes, but now there is reason for believing that other parties of more mature years have been practicing throwing. They are the men the company are after, and they will be called to account the next time a globe is broken. Malicious destruction of property costs money when proven.

THE ANNUAL RECEPTION.

It Will Be Held at the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Evening.

The reception which the Young Men's Christian association always give on the first evening of the year to the college boys will this time be on a more elaborate scale than in other years. The program is as follows:

Anthem.....Y. M. C. A. Quartet
Vocal solo.....Miss Carrie Campbell
Club singing.....Association sextet
Piano duet.....The Misses Agner
Recitation.....Miss Bella Myler
Duet.....Charles Usher and Leith Young
Vocal solo.....Miss Georgia McLean
Recitation.....Miss Carrie McKinnon
Harmonica solo.....Henry Ashbaugh
Vocal solo.....George A. Hassen
Solo.....Mrs. Fannie Foreman
Violin solo.....George Roland
Opus gymnastic.....Senior class

The general public is invited, and the officers of the association hope the invitation will be accepted, promising all who come a delightful evening.

GUILTY OF LARCENY.

George Hickman Got a Fine of $10 and Costs.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Dec. 31.—George Hickman, of Middleton township, was in the court of Judge Young last night charged with larceny by William Ferguson, from whom he had stolen a number of articles. He pleaded guilty, and got $10 and costs.

Miss Flossie Lucas, a prominent young woman of this place, died here yesterday. Rheumatism was the cause. She was but 17 years of age.

George H. Alcorn, a farmer residing near East Palestine, made an assignment today to S. H. Maneval.

Marriage licenses were issued today to Carlos McLaughlin and Ella Lewis; Dayton Rigden and Maggie Glassburner.

MAKING GOOD TIME.

How the Standard Pottery is Being Whitewashed.

There is but little yet undone about the Standard to make it a complete pottery, and Manager Ferguson and Patrick McNicol were doing away with that little this morning. They found it necessary to whitewash some portions of the place and desiring to make time they got a force pump and a hose. The fluid was then forced against the walls, and the arduous work was made less tiresome, while the laughing workers made much better time than with a brush. They think of having a patent on the appliance.

Didn't Lift the Watch.

John Elliott, the East End young man who picked up a friend's watch after he had thrown it away on Christmas eve, simply did it in kindness, and immediately turned it over to Mayor Gilbert. Mr. Elliott had none but the most honorable intention.

Comrade Alex McGraw

Will address the Sons of Veterans tonight at the Grand Army hall, on the topic of Andersonville and the horrors of prison life during the war of the rebellion.

THE NEWS REVIEW.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

VOLUME 11.....NUMBER 171

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

Office, Wells Building, Washington & Fourth.
(Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.)

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, DEC. 31.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

It will not be long until Mr. Harrison will be showing what he has in his hand. He cannot forever remain a silent witness of what his friends, McKinley and Reed, are doing.

While the Venezuelan commissioners are discussing the boundary, some of those southerners who are aching to march into Canada and whip the British, might lend their warlike spirit toward reforming those Kentucky gentlemen who delight in burning women and children because their relatives committed murder.

A FEW FACTS.

If the dear brethren in the central and northern parts of the county will kindly examine the records of the past and the conditions of the present they will find they have no possible grounds upon which to base the charge that the southern portion gets more than its share of officers, and has no right to ask for more in years to come.

A glance in the court house will show that East Liverpool, the metropolis of the county having 1,600 Republican votes, is represented this afternoon by but one official, Auditor George B. Harvey. Wellsville has more to its credit with 700 votes, to be sure, in the persons of Judge Smith, Judge Young and Sheriff Lodge; but Judge Smith is only an appointment, and Sheriff Lodge was a resident of Wellsville for so short a time that he can not properly be credited to this part of the county. Salineville with 400 votes has Representative Ashford and Treasurer Cameron, while Salem, with 800 voters has three in the persons of a representative, a commissioner and the recorder. Then comes Lisbon from which place the complaint of our section having too many offices first came. In Center township there are about 600 votes, and seven county officers are from that place. They enjoy a commissioner, coroner, two infirmaries directors, the surveyor, prosecuting attorney and the clerk of courts. The southeastern portion where fully 1,000 Republican farmers reside has a commissioner, and he will soon lose his position.

The figures show for themselves. They are known to anyone who takes the trouble to keep pace with county politics. The largest Republican community in the county has one officer and the township in which is located the seat of government with less than half the number of votes is given seven. Is there reason for complaint from that quarter? Should the party leaders there want a few more places to their credit? While it may be conceded that some parts of the county have in the past, and at present are endowed with more than their proportionate share of representation at Lisbon it can not be said with truthfulness that the southern portion has ever been affected in this way. The history of the court house shows East Liverpool to be lacking in county officials, and it is only in recent years that we have been getting anything. There is no desire here to gobble all the offices, nor anything but a fair proportion—that part conceded by our big Republican vote on every possible occasion.

A LETTER FROM INDIA.

Mrs. Ada Lee Thanks Her Friends in This City.

The following letter, which fully explains itself, was received from Mrs. Ada Lee by Mrs. Kinsey, of this city, the writer being a missionary in India:

DEAR FRIEND—I received your kind letter and draft for $100 for use on the East Liverpool room of our mission building. How I thank God for your success. I am sure he will bless you all for your part in this work. I wish you could see where we live surrounded on every hand by idolaters. From our window we can see them marching in the streets, carrying their idols dancing before them, followed by numbers of children and men singing the praises of their gods—bowing down to wood and stone. Women are shut up all about us with no chance of hearing the Gospel except as we take it to them, and if you only knew what a handful of women we are it would make your heart ache. And to see little children in the midst of such sin and superstition, I can't tell you how I long to take them to a different atmosphere. I have 14 nice girls living with me, and all are studying and doing well. How glad I will be when we get our building. Pray that God will teach other hearts to do as you are doing. I had a nice letter from Mrs. Thomas. Thank her for it, and thank all who may help and be with us in the work.

Your True Friend,

ADA LEE.

The good people of this city who are interested in Mrs. Lee and her work in Calcutta, have already sent $250 to the little school in far off India.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

L. N. Crable and Rev Foutts go to Rochester tomorrow where they will shoot with the gun club at the place.

Superintendent Morley had a formal work yesterday connecting the Standard pottery with the city water system.

The wind blew the coalboats about in a lively manner last night, but as far as could be learned this morning no damage was done.

If the weather is propitious a party made up of members of the Cosmopolitan club will shoot at the grounds across the river tomorrow.

The aid society of St. Aloysius church is arranging for a social to be given in the temperance room on Friday evening. None but members will be present.

The Elks will entertain friends at their lodge rooms on New Year's night. A musical program has been prepared and dancing will conclude the evening's pleasure.

The American Mechanics will observe their seventh anniversary on Friday evening at their hall in the Goding block. The members and their wives will make up the party.

The force at the receiving platform at the freight depot is busy today with the arriving for the potteries. It is expected that someone anticipates work in the coming months.

Captain Morley at the fire station has a new head in grief and is sad. Some time ago he was given a fine setter dog, and the intelligent animal soon became a great favorite about the station. A week ago the dog disappeared, and no trace has been found long been a joy to more than one of it.

The West End Athletic club of Cleveland will play football with the Rovers at West End park tomorrow. The visitors have won fame on the field, but the home team will fight hard for victory, and expect to win out.

Broadway was a slippery and a dangerous place this morning. Men fell and rose there like the waves of the ocean, and some men rubbed sore spots when they got up. Washington street was in equally bad condition, but no broken bones were heard of about the city.

There are a great many cases of typhoid fever in the city at present, one physician having five on his list of patients. Other doctors have cases, and it is said that the total number in town is over a dozen. The best preventative is to boil all the water taken internally.

Comparatively few farmers are seen in the city these days because they can't get in. The country roads were long, winding lanes of mud so deep that farmers do not care to travel when they are not compelled to. Seldom have the roads been so bad at this time of the year.

Tomorrow will be generally observed as a holiday, although there are no particular events to amuse the people. The force at the freight depot will take the day and the banks will do no business. As far as possible the day will be given over to feasting and pleasure in all parts of the city.

The movement looking to the establishment of the Masonic university at Beaver is by no means dead, and a party from Pittsburgh visited the proposed site yesterday. They took dinner at the Beaver hotel where they were visited by a number of prominent Masons. After dinner they were driven over the ground, a beautiful elevation overlooking the river and were greatly pleased.

Orders have been issued by the Pennsylvania company to have all the hand rails, handle bars, pipes and brasswork on the engines painted black, every engine in the service of the corporation to be included. The order meets with the approval of the firemen, but the old engineers are greatly displeased. In the past they have been accustomed to seeing the brass and copper work polished to a snow white and is sad to see it so.

Another part of the order calls for the removal of all ornaments which the antlers which have appeared, and no trace has been found long been a joy to more than one of it. An engineer will have to come down.

They took dinner at the Beaver hotel where they were visited by a number of prominent Masons. After dinner they were driven over the ground, a beautiful elevation overlooking the river and were greatly pleased.

Orders have been issued by the Pennsylvania company to have all the and rails, handle bars, pipes and brasswork on the engines painted black, every engine in the service of the corporation to be included. The ing for the machinery and material order meets with the approval of the arriving for the potteries. It is expected that someone anticipates work in the coming months.

Some time ago he was given a fine anything but pleasant to them. setter dog, and the intelligent animal another part of the order calls for soon became a great favorite about the removal of all ornaments which the station. A week ago the dog disappeared, and no trace has been found long been a joy to more than one of it.

ON HIS EAR.

The artist has endeavored to depict an angry and dissatisfied customer. He came to our store afterward. He has just left a rival establishment. We would like to show his picture when leaving us, but the smile on his countenance would be too expensive to illustrate in a single column. Why not always smile? It's so easy. Simply buy your clothing of Geo. C. Murphy and the seamed and wrinkled forehead of discontent will exist only in imagination. Also see our holiday line of neckwear, silk mufflers, fur and plain top kid gloves, silk umbrellas, silk suspenders, etc., at lowest prices known. See our Smoking Jackets.

—William Erlanger, Jr., left yesterday for Philadelphia, where he will spend a few days, and then set sail for Germany and spend three months doing the continent.

Anyone who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says, "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

A BAD WRECK.

The Harry Brown Sunk Four Barges and Killed a Man.

The most disastrous wreck of the season occurred on the river at Brunot's island yesterday, the Harry Brown being the unfortunate boat. The pilot lost control of the boat and the tow ran on the head of the island. Four barges were aground, and the boat was attempting to pull them off when a chain broke and struck Jonathan Wood and the son of the captain. Wood died on his way to the hospital, but it is believed the other young man will recover. The Harry Brown passed down the river yesterday afternoon and only had two barges.

The great majority of men and women, of even very much more than ordinary intelligence, pay no attention whatsoever to the well established rules governing the preservation of health. Simple symptoms of indigestion or slight disarrangements of the stomach or system are treated by them as trivial happenings, having no weight or bearing upon their general health. In this seeming neglect or too much over confidence in their own robustness lies the greatest mistake of their lives, as it is invariably from these little ailments grow chronic diseases spring. To guard fully against such evils, use Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine; the only true tonic to the stomach system, system, and nerves, perfect strength and tissue producer, and new rich blood matter. Go or send for it to Alvin H. Bulger, druggist, Sixth and West Market.

DOWNED THE OFFICER.

Vaccination Was Entirely Too Much For Frank Earl.

Officer Frank Earl has been confined to his room since Saturday because of an unusually severe experience with vaccination. When the force received the vaccine the officer did not imagine he was doomed to suffering, but his arm began to swell and on Saturday he was compelled to remain in bed. The swelling extended over the greater part of his side and leg, and he is still a very sick man. Clerk Hanley also carries his arm about carefully it having swollen to a great deal more than the usual size.

CITY WATER WORKS.

KEEP OUT THE CROWD.

Councilmen Want No More Experiences at Trials.

"I am almost a dead man today," said a councilman this morning, "the result of being shut up in the stifling atmosphere of the council chamber yesterday. It is a little too much to ask a man to go down there and do as we did, and I am opposed to it. The only trouble was the crowd, and I believe the city should either hire a hall for such occasions or keep out the spectators. That room was never intended to hold the number of people in there yesterday, and it is too much to ask any man, even though he is a councilman, to endure it."

HE DIDN'T COME.

A Mormon Missionary Wanted to Locate in This Place.

The story is told that a young Englishman in this city last week received a letter from a friend he had known in the old country, informing him that he was now a Mormon, and having heard of East Liverpool, thought of locating here. The recipient at once wrote his friend to stay out of town and seek some other place where the people took more kindly to the Mormon doctrine. He said that this city would not likely be a healthy spot for him, and so the Mormon decided to stay away.

Assignment Next Week.

Lisbon, Dec. 31.—The assignment for next week is as follows: Monday—Demurens and motions; Snow, Church & Co. versus W. T. Tebbett; Robert Welsh versus Wellsville; Arbuthnot, Stevenson & Co. versus A. J. Rogers; Wellsville Soap company versus Duncan McEane; Ida Windom versus A. G. Smith; E. D. Marshall versus E. A. Albright; H. H. Anderson versus Yellow Creek township; J. R. Terrell versus W. T. Blackburn; Tuesday—J. Bentz versus Lisbon; Wednesday—Furnace Clay company versus John E. Gamble; William Wooster versus Francis Klasing; First National bank of Allegheny versus John Rinehart. Thursday—John C. Whinnery versus Salem Water company; A. W. Scott versus J. Blue; Euphemia Putnam versus John Lythe & Sons; E. C. Adams versus H. C. Rigby.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at the W. & W. drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

A Delightful Evening.

Mrs. Mills Bennett, at her home on Cadmus street last evening, delightfully entertained the calling committee of the Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church. An excellent musical program was carried out, dainty refreshments were served, and the evening throughout made one of enjoyment.

A number of young people of the Christian church called on Reverend Huffer last evening, and spent the time very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, of Lincoln avenue, will entertain at their home this evening.

LOOK HERE.

For the balance of this week we will make one dozen of our crystaltype cabinet pictures for $3. Remember, this week only. We are still making the ordinary finish for $1.50 per dozen, and they are as good as any made in the city at double the price. Remember the place MacKenzie, in the First National Bank building.

After a Dog Thief.

Joe Keeper, of Locust alley, is after the man who stole his dog. It was a coon dog and Keeper had it chained in his lot, when someone entered, broke the lock and carried off the canine. If the dog is not returned, Keeper will prosecute on the strength of the broken lock.

Got a Judgment.

The ice plant got a judgment today against Hassey & Garner for $29.44, the amount of an ice bill. It was rendered in the court of Squire Rose.

A Bible Meeting.

There will be no meeting of the Laymen's Bible class until Thursday evening, on account of New Year's eve. They will meet Thursday evening, January 2, in Ferguson & Hill's hall, and invite all who wish to study the Bible and become members to meet with them. The class is undenominational, and invite all Christians to come and join with them in the study of the Word.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and $1 per bottle at the W. & W. drug store.

NOTICE.

All water consumers in arrears will be shut off Thursday next, Jan. 2. The penalty of $1 will be enforced for each and every shut off. By order of Trustees.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.
HARRY PALMER, Business Manager.
THOS. W. MORRIS, Editor.
Office, Wells Building, Washington & Fourth.
(Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.)

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, DEC. 31.

For President,
WILLIAM McKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

It will not be long until Mr. Harrison will be showing what he has in his hand. He cannot forever remain a silent witness of what his friends, McKinley and Reed, are doing.

WHILE the Venezuelan commissioners are discussing the boundary, some of those southerners who are aching to march into Canada and whip the British, might lend their warlike spirit toward reforming those Kentucky gentlemen who delight in burning women and children because their relatives committed murder.

A FEW FACTS.

If the dear brethren in the central and northern parts of the county will kindly examine the records of the past and the conditions of the present they will find they have no possible grounds upon which to base the charge that the southern portion gets more than its share of officers, and has no right to ask for more in years to come.

A glance in the court house will show that East Liverpool, the metropolis of the county having 1,600 Republican votes, is represented this afternoon by but one official, Auditor George B. Harvey. Wellsville has more to its credit with 700 votes, to be sure, in the persons of Judge Smith, Judge Young and Sheriff Lodge; but Judge Smith is only an appointment, and Sheriff Lodge was a resident of Wellsville for so short a time that he can not properly be credited to this part of the county. Salineville with 400 votes has Representative Ashford and Treasurer Cameron, while Salem, with 800 voters has three in the persons of a representative, a commissioner and the recorder. Then comes Lisbon from which place the complaint of our section having too many offices first came. In Center township there are about 600 votes, and seven county officers are from that place. They enjoy a commissioner, coroner, two infirmaries directors, the surveyor, prosecuting attorney and the clerk of courts. The southeastern portion where fully 1,000 Republican farmers reside has a commissioner, and he will soon lose his position.

The figures show for themselves. They are known to anyone who takes the trouble to keep pace with county politics. The largest Republican community in the county has one officer and the township in which is located the seat of government with less than half the number of votes is given seven. Is there reason for complaint from that quarter? Should the party leaders there want a few more places to their credit? While it may be conceded that some parts of the county have in the past, and at present are endowed with more than their proportionate share of representation at Lisbon it can not be said with truthfulness that the southern portion has ever been affected in this way. The history of the court house shows East Liverpool to be lacking in county officials, and it is only in recent years that we have been getting anything. There is no desire here to gobble all the offices, nor anything but a fair proportion—that part conceded by our big Republican vote on every possible occasion.

A LETTER FROM INDIA.

Mrs. Ada Lee Thanks Her Friends in This City.

The following letter which fully explains itself, was received from Mrs. Ada Lee by Mrs. Kinsey, of this city, the writer being a missionary in India:

DEAR FRIEND—I received your kind letter and draft for $100 for use on the East Liverpool room of our mission building. How I thank God for your success. I am sure he will bless you all for your part in this work. I wish you could see where we live surrounded on every hand by idolaters. From our window we can see them marching in the streets, carrying their idols dancing before them, followed by numbers of children and men singing the praises of their gods—bowing down to wood and stone. Women are shut up all about us with no chance of hearing the Gospel except as we take it to them, and if you only knew what a handful of women we are it would make your heart ache. And to see little children in the midst of such sin and superstition, I can't tell you how I long to take them to a different atmosphere. I have 14 nice girls living with me, and all are studying and doing well. How glad I will be when we get our building. Pray that God will teach other hearts to do as you are doing. I had a nice letter from Mrs. Thomas. Thank her for it, and thank all who may help and be with us in the work.

Your True Friend,
ADA LEE.

The good people of this city who are interested in Mrs. Lee and her work in Calcutta, have already sent $250 to the little school in far off India.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this sign at a distance of 10 inches from the eye with ease and comfort. Also, will be able to read it with each eye separately. If unable to do so, your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from reading, writing, or if the letters look blurred and run together, it is a sure indication that glasses are needed. The lenses sold in the cheap shops are of unequal quality and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Continued use of these poor lenses will result in positive injury from the excessive strain upon the muscles of accommodation to supply the defects in the glass."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

I. N. Crable and Rev Foutts go to Rochester tomorrow where they will shoot with the gun club at the place.

Superintendent Morley had a forenoon work yesterday connecting the standard pottery with the city water system.

The wind blew the coalboats about in a lively manner last night, but as far as could be learned this morning no damage was done.

If the weather is propitious a party made up of members of the Cosmopolitan club will shoot at the grounds across the river tomorrow.

The aid society of St. Aloysius church is arranging for a social to be given in the temperance room on Friday evening. None but members will be present.

The Elks will entertain friends in their lodge rooms on New Year's night. A musical program has been prepared and dancing will conclude the evening's pleasure.

The American Mechanics will observe their seventh anniversary on Friday evening at their hall in the Golding block. The members and their wives will make up the party.

The force at the receiving platform at the freight depot is busy today caring for the machinery and material arriving for the potteries. It is evident that someone anticipates work in the coming months.

Captain Morley at the fire station bows his head in grief and is sad. Some time ago he was given a fine setter dog, and the intelligent animal soon became a great favorite about the station. A week ago the dog disappeared, and no trace has been found of it.

The West End Athletic club of Cleveland will play football with the Rovers at West End park tomorrow. The visitors have won fame on the field, but the home team will fight hard for victory, and expect to win out.

Broadway was a slippery and a dangerous place this morning. Men fell and rose there like the waves of the ocean, and some men rubbed sore spots when they got up. Washington street was in equally bad condition, but no broken bones were heard of about the city.

There are a great many cases of typhoid fever in the city at present, one physician having five on his list of patients. Other doctors have cases, and it is said that the total number in town is over a dozen. The best preventative is to boil all the water taken internally.

Comparatively few farmers are seen in the city these days because they can't get in. The country roads were long, winding lanes of mud so deep that farmers do not care to travel when they are not compelled to. Seldom have the roads been so bad at this time of the year.

Tomorrow will be generally observed as a holiday, although there are no particular events to amuse the people. The force at the freight depot will take the day and the banks will do no business. As far as possible the day will be given over to feasting and pleasure in all parts of the city.

The movement looking to the establishment of the Masonic university at Beaver is by no means dead and a party from Pittsburg visited the proposed site yesterday. They took dinner at the Beaver hotel where they were visited by a number of prominent Masons. After dinner they were driven over the ground, a beautiful elevation overlooking the river and were greatly pleased.

Orders have been issued by the Pennsylvania company to have all the hand rails, handle bars, pipes and brasswork on the engines painted black, every engine in the service of the corporation to be included. The order meets with the approval of the firemen, but the old engineers are greatly displeased. In the past they have been accustomed to seeing the brass and copper work polished to a bright finish, and the dull blackness is anything but pleasant to them.

Another part of the order calls for the removal of all ornaments which means that the antlers which have so long been a joy to more than one engineer will have to come down.

ON HIS EAR.

The artist has endeavored to depict an angry and dissatisfied customer. He came to our store afterward. He has just left a rival establishment. We would like to show his picture when leaving us, but the smile on his countenance would be too expensive to illustrate in a single column. Why not always smile? It's so easy. Simply buy your clothing of Geo. C. Murphy and the seamed and wrinkled forehead of discontent will exist only in imagination. Also see our holiday line of neckwear, silk mufflers, fur and plain top kid gloves, silk umbrellas, silk suspenders, etc., at lowest prices known. See our Smoking Jackets.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Rena Bricelin is visiting friends in Alliance.

—William Chisholm and wife left for Trenton today to visit relatives.

—Miss Etta Horwell is spending a few days in Pittsburgh with relatives.

—Mrs. L. M. Miller, of Second street, is recovering from an attack of the grip.

—Lawrence Frederick, of Salem, is visiting his son, George Frederick, of Third street.

—Thomas Bennett and his bride will be here tomorrow from Kentucky to visit relatives.

—Miss Maggie Taylor, of Pittsburg, is visiting her brother, Mr. John Taylor, Cadmus street.

—Will Green, wife and child went to New Cumberland yesterday afternoon to visit relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Anthony, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mrs. Fannie Wylie, of Walnut street.

—Clyde Roberts, John Bunn and James McGonigle, all of Salineville, are in town today visiting friends.

—J. French Kerr was a visitor at the Beaver county poor house farm yesterday, the guest of Homer Stewart-Thornburg.

—Mrs. Lee and son returned from Pittsburg yesterday afternoon, after a few days' visit with Mrs. Lee's parents, who reside at that place.

—William Erlanger, Jr., left yesterday for Philadelphia, where he will spend a few days, and then set sail for Germany and spend three months doing the continent.

Anyone who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says, "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

A BAD WRECK.

The Harry Brown Sunk Four Barges and Killed a Man.

The most disastrous wreck of the season occurred on the river at Brunt's island yesterday, the Harry Brown being the unfortunate boat. The pilot lost control of the boat and the tow ran on the head of the island. Four barges were aground, and the boat was attempting to pull them off when a chain broke and struck Jonathan Wood and the son of the captain. Wood died on his way to the hospital, but it is believed the other young man will recover. The Harry Brown passed down the river yesterday afternoon and only had two barges.

The great majority of men and women, of even very much more than ordinary intelligence, pay no attention whatsoever to the well established rules governing the preservation of health. Simple symptoms of indigestion or slight disarrangements of the stomach or system are treated by them as trivial happenings, having no weight or bearing upon their general health. In this seeming neglect or too much over confidence in their own robustness lies the greatest mistake of their lives, as it is invariably from these little ailments giant chronic diseases spring. To guard fully against such evils, use Libby's Phosphatic Beef, Iron and Wine; the only true tonic to the stomach system, system and nerves, perfect strength and tissue producer, and new rich blood matter. Go or send for it to Alvin H. Bulger, druggist, Sixth and West Market.

DOWNED THE OFFICER.

Vaccination Was Entirely Too Much For Frank Earl.

Officer Frank Earl has been confined to his room since Saturday because of an unusually severe experience with vaccination. When the force received the vaccine the officer did not imagine he was doomed to suffering, but his arm began to swell and on Saturday he was compelled to remain in bed. The swelling extended over the greater part of his side and leg, and he is still a very sick man. Clerk Hanley also carries his arm about carefully it having swollen to a great deal more than the usual size.

NOTICE.

All water consumers in arrears will be shut off Thursday next, Jan. 2. The penalty of $1 will be enforced for each and every shut off. By order of Trustees.

CITY WATER WORKS.

KEEP OUT THE CROWD.

Councilmen Want no More Experiences at Trials.

"I am almost a dead man today," said a councilman this morning, "the result of being shut up in the stifling atmosphere of the council chamber yesterday. It is a little too much to ask a man to go down there and do as we did, and I am opposed to it. The only trouble was the crowd, and I believe the city should either hire a hall for such occasions or keep out the spectators. That room was never intended to hold the number of people in there yesterday, and it is too much to ask any man, even though he is a councilman, to endure it."

HE DIDN'T COME.

A Mormon Missionary Wanted to Locate in This Place.

The story is told that a young Englishman in this city last week received a letter from a friend he had known in the old country, informing him that he was now a Mormon, and having heard of East Liverpool, thought of locating here. The recipient at once wrote his friend to stay out of town and seek some other place where the people took more kindly to the Mormon doctrine. He said that this city would not likely be a healthy spot for him, and so the Mormon decided to stay away.

Assignment Next Week.

Lisbon, Dec. 31.—The assignment for next week is as follows: Monday—Demurors and motions; Snow, Church & Co. versus W. T. Tebbett; Robert Welsh versus Wellsville; Arbuthnot, Stevenson & Co. versus A. J. Rogers; Wellsville Soap company versus Duncan McBane; Ida Windom versus A. G. Smith; E. D. Marshall versus E. A. Albright; H. H. Anderson versus Yellow Creek township; J. R. Terrell versus W. T. Blackburn; Tuesday—J. Bentz versus Lisbon; Wednesday—Furnace Clay company versus John E. Gamble; William Wooster versus Francis Kiasgal; First National bank of Allegheny versus John Rinehart. Thursday—John C. Whinnery versus Salem Water company; A. W. Scott versus J. Blue; Euphemia Putnam versus John Lythe & Sons; E. C. Adams versus H. C. Rigby.

Marvelous Results

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at the W. & W. drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.

A Delightful Evening.

Mrs. Mills Bennett, at her home on Cadmus street last evening, delightfully entertained the calling committee of the Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church. An excellent musical program was carried out, dainty refreshments were served, and the evening throughout made one of enjoyment.

A number of young people of the Christian church called on Reverend Huffer last evening, and spent the time very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, of Lincoln avenue, will entertain at their home this evening.

LOOK HERE.

For the balance of this week we will make one dozen of our crystal type cabinet pictures for $3. Remember, this week only. We are still making the ordinary finish for $1.50 per dozen, and they are as good as any made in the city at double the price. Remember the place. MacKenzie, in the First National Bank building.

After a Dog Thief.

Joe Keeper, of Locust alley, is after the man who stole his dog. It was a coon dog and Keeper had it chained in his lot, when some one entered, broke the lock and carried off the canine. If the dog is not returned, Keeper will prosecute on the strength of the broken lock.

Got a Judgment.

The ice plant got a judgment today against Hassey & Garner for $29.44, the amount of an ice bill. It was rendered in the court of Squire Rose.

A Bible Meeting.

There will be no meeting of the Laymen's Bible class until Thursday evening, on account of New Year's eve. They will meet Thursday evening, January 2, in Ferguson & Hill's hall, and invite all who wish to study the Bible and become members to meet with them. The class is denominational, and invite all Christians to come and join with them in the study of the Word.

COMMITTEE.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by the W. & W. pharmacy.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE—THE PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between Frank H. Coles and C. N. Everson, under the firm name of The East Liverpool Monument Works, Coles & Everson, proprietors, is dissolved by mutual consent on this 23d day of December, 1888. Frank H. Coles retiring. C. N. Everson will pay all debts of the company and receive and collect all monies due. FRANK H. COLES, C. N. EVERSON.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and $1 per bottle at the W. & W. drug store.

NOTICE.

All water consumers in arrears will be shut off Thursday next, Jan. 2. The penalty of $1 will be enforced for each and every shut off. By order of Trustees.

CITY WATER WORKS.

Watch Meetings.

Several watch meetings will be held in town tonight, some at private residences, and others in the churches. Young people's societies at some of the churches will open the year tomorrow morning with sunrise prayer meetings.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as soon as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.
